

which said Tract has been purchased by the said Clarence R. Walker.

Now Know Ye, That the United States of America, in Consideration of the premises and in Conformity to the several Acts of Congress in such case made and provided, have given and granted, and by these presents do give and grant, unto the said Clarence R. Walker, and to his heirs, the said Tract above described: To have and to hold the same, together with all the rights, privileges, immunities and appurtenances, of whatsoever nature thereunto belonging, unto the said Clarence R. Walker, and to his heirs and assigns forever: subject to any vested and accrued water rights for mining, agricultural, manufacturing, or other purposes and rights to ditches and reservoirs used in connection with such water rights, as may be recognized and acknowledged by the Customs, laws, and decisions of Courts, and also subject to the right of the proprietor of a vein or lode, to extract and remove his ore therefrom, should the same be found to penetrate or intersect the premises hereby granted, as provided by Law.

In Testimony whereof, I, Benjamin Harrison, President of the United States of America, have caused these letters to be made Patent, and the Seal of the General Land Office to be hereunto affixed. Given under my hand, at the City of Washington this 19th day of October A.D. 1889, and of the Independence of the United States the 114th
