NOTICE OF LIEN.

JOHN IMAN
CLAIMANT VS.
LEWIS IMAN.

Notice is hereby given that John Iman of Skamania County, Washington claims a lien upon a quantity of logs, being about ninety thousand feet in quantity which were cut or manufactured in Skamania County, State of Washington and are now, in the Ryan-Allen Mill Pond and in the woods of the said Lewis Iman, for labor performed upon and assistance rendered falling and bucking said logs and in constructing logging roads; that the name of the owner or reputed owner is Lewis Iman; that he employed said John Iman to perform such labor and render such assistance upon the following terms and conditions.

The said Lewis Iman agreed to pay the said John Iman for such labor and assistance; that said contract has been faithfully performed and fully complied with on the part of said John Iman who performed labor upon and rendered assistance in falling and bucking said logs and building said roads for a period of more than two months; that said labor and assistance were so performed and rendered upon said logs and roads, between September 18th, 1927 and the 17th day of November, 1927; and the rendition of said service was closed on or about the 17th day of November, 1927, and thirty days have not elapsed since that time; that the amount of claimants demand for said service is $187.70; that no part thereof has been paid except a board bill the amount of which is not determined, and there is now due and owing and remaining unpaid thereon, after deducting all credits and offsets, the sum of $187.70 less said board bill to be determined, in which amount he claims a lien on all said logs. The said John Iman also claims a lien on all said logs now owned by said Lewis Iman wherever located to secure payment for the work and labor performed in obtaining or securing the said logs, spars, piles or other timber, lumber or shingles herein described.
