George F. Westerberg vs C. Pearson

George F. Westerberg, Claimant

vs

LIEN CLAIM

C. Pearson, Owner

NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN that George F. Westerberg of Portland, Ore., hereby claims a lien upon a certain quantity of fir logs and piling described as follows, to-wit:

70 pieces, 50 to 85 ft. long, 18 to 22 in. in diameter at the butt now piled on Sec. 21, T. 2 N. R. 7 East, along the railway siding upon a spur owned by Potts Lumber company, in Skamania County, Washington,

50 pieces, 60 to 70 ft. long, 8 in. in diameter at the top, now piled on the bank of the Columbia River about 150 ft. south of the railroad track at the junction of the Cascade's spur in said township and range;

40 pieces, 40 to 50 ft. long, 12 in. at the butt:

40 pieces, 8 in. at the top and about 60 to 70 ft. long located upon the D. L. C. of O. W. Eastham on the Rollway and in the woods in Sections 19 and 20, T. 2, N. R. 7 East of the Will. Mer. in said County;

That said lien is claimed for labor and services performed in cutting, securing, handling and piling said logs and piling; that all the said logs and piling were cut and manufactured in Skamania County, Washington, and the owner or reputed owner thereof is the said C. Pearson:

That the said C. Pearson employed the claimant to perform said labor and render such assistance upon the following terms and conditions, to-wit: At the rate of $5.00 per day, and claimant worked 51 day; and claimant worked 51 days between July 25, 1929, and Sept. 14, 1929; that the said labor and services were faithfully performed and thirty days has not elapsed since the completion of said services; that the total amount of claimant's claim and demand for said services is the sum of $255.00 after deducting all just debits and offsets and said claimant claims a lien upon said piling and logs in said sum; that no part of said sum has ever been paid; that said claimant also claims a lien upon any and all other logs and piling now owned by the said C. Pearson to secure payment for the said work and labor so performed in securing said logs and piling hereinbefore described. Dated October 7, 1929.
