

Shapley claim, Copper Creek Mining District

Notice of Location

To whom it may concern:

Notice is hereby given, that I, Henry Meyer a citizen of the United States of America, over the age of twenty-one years, having complied with the requirements of Chapter Six of Title Thirty-two of the Revised Statutes of the United States and of all other mining laws thereof, and of the State of Washington, and the local customs, laws, rules and regulations of miners, did on the 1st day of January A. D. 1900, locate, and by this notice do hereby locate a quartz claim known as the Shapley Lode or Mining Claim, said claim having been discovered the first day of January 1900, and do claim (fifteen hundred linear feet on this lead, lode or vein bearing mineral in place, by six hundred feet in width, the same being three hundred feet on each side of the center thereof, together with all dips, spurs and angles, and all other veins or lodes, the top or apex of which lie within said boundaries) twenty acres of mining ground, situated in Copper Creek Dist. County of Skamania, State of Washington said location being described and distinctly marked by reference to several objects or permanent monuments, and more particularly described as follows, to-wit:

beginning at the North West corner thence 300 feet in an Easternly direction to the North End corner stake, thence 300 feet in an Easternly direction to the North East corner stake, thence 1500 feet in a Southernly direction to the South East corner stake, thence 300 feet in a Westernly direction to the South End corner stake, thence 300 feet in a Westernly direction to the South West corner stake, thence 1500 feet in a Northernly direction along the East line of the Ida Motion claim to the place of beginning.

And I intend to hold and work said claim in accordance with the local customs and rules of miners and the Mining Laws of the United States and of the State of Washington.

Dated the first day of January 1900
