

Hemlock Claim. Bald Mountain Mining District.

Affidavit of Assessment Work on Hemlock Mining Claim.
State of Oregon
County of Multnomah }

I, D. J. Lawton, being first duly sworn, say that at least one hundred dollars worth of labor and improvements were performed and made upon the Hemlock Mining Claim on the Hoo Hoo Lode, in the Bald Mountain Mining District in the County of Skamania and State of Washington during the year ending December 31, 1899. That such labor and improvements consisted of making 40 feet of open cut and 35 feet of tunnel upon the Omnia Bona Bonis Mining Claim situated upon the same lode; that said open cut and tunnel were made for the benefit of and for the purpose of working and developing the said Hemlock claim, the said Omnia Bona Bonis claim, and the Wild River claim, all of said claims being situated upon said Hoo Hoo lode, and being contiguous; that such expenditure was made at the expense of the owners of said claim for the purpose of holding and developing said claim. That I have personal knowledge of all the above stated facts
