"Mountain Lion" Claims. Bald Mountain Mining District.

Certificate of Location of Quartz Mining Claim.

I, Jonathan Bourne Jr., a citizen of the United States, hereby certify that on the first day of March 1900, I discovered within the limits of the claim hereinafter described a lode of rock in place bearing gold, silver, copper and other valuable minerals; that thereafter, and prior to recording this certificate, I located said claim in the following manner: On the 10th day of March 1900, I posted at the point of discovery a plain notice of which the following is a copy, to wit:

Notice of Location.

Notice is hereby given that I, Jonathan Bourne Jr., a citizen of the United States, have discovered a lode of rock in place carrying gold, silver, copper and other valuable deposits, upon which, at the point of discovery, I have posted this notice.

In accordance with the laws of the United States and of the State of Washington, I hereby claim fifteen hundred linear feet of said vein and lode, measured thereon as hereinafter set forth. The general course of this lode is South 60° East I claim in length thereon fifteen hundred feet Southeasterly from the point of discovery at which this notice is posted. I also claim three hundred feet on each side of the center of said lode.

Said lode is situated in the Bald Mountain Mining District in the County of Grant, State of Washington. It shall be known as the East Chance lode, and this claim shall be known as the Mountain Lion lode claim. Said discovery was made.....

In accordance with the laws of the State of Washington.

I claim ninety days from date of such discovery to enable me to mark the surface boundaries of the claim, and to otherwise perfect and record the location of said claim.

Dated and posted on the ground March 10th 1900

On the day of March 1900, I marked the surface boundaries of said claim by placing substantial posts bearing the name of the lode and of the claim, and date of location, at each corner of said claim, said posts being not less than three feet high and four inches in diameter and cut brush and marked and blazed the trees along the lines of said claim to indicate the location of such lines.

The general course of said lode is South 60° East I claim fifteen hundred linear feet on said lode, to wit: fifteen hundred feet in length Southeasterly from point of discovery, and in width three hundred feet on each side of the center of said lode, and all mineral deposits contained within the surface boundaries of said claim, as hereinafter described.

Said claim is and shall be known as the Mountain Lion lode claim. Said claim is situated in Section 33 in Twp. 3 North of Range 5 East, W. 11. in the Baldy Mining District, in the County of Skamania, State of Washington, and as marked on the ground the surface boundary of said claim is particularly described as follows, to wit:

Beginning at a post in a mound of rock at the Northwest corner of said claim said post being also the Northeast corner of the "Old" Mining claim, said post is 596 feet South and 1016½ feet East of the common corner of Sections 28, 29, 32 and 33 in Township Three (3) North of Range 5 East of the Willamette Meridian, and running thence South 60° East 1500 feet; thence South 40° 15' West 600 feet; thence North 60° West 1500 feet; thence North 40° 15' East 600 feet to the place of beginning.

And I intend to hold and work said above-described claim as provided by the laws of the United States and of the State of Washington.
