John Burns to Interlaken Resort Co.

INTERLAKEN RESORT COMPANY
a corporation,

Claimant,

CLAIM OF LIEN FOR STUMPAGE

vs.

John Burns,

Defendant.

NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN, that Interlaken Resort Company, a corporation, of Washington, claims a lien upon a certain lot of cord wood, being about 32 cords in quantity, which was cut in Skamania County, State of Washington, and now lying upon certain lands belonging to claimant in said Skamania County, and north of Ice House Lake therein, for stumpage due thereon; that the name of the owner or reputed owner of said cordwood is John Burns; that the said John Burns cut the timber from which said cordwood was manufactured without consent of claimant; that said stumpage is reasonable worth fifty cents per cord for 16 cords of said wood made from matured ripe trees, snags and down timber, and the sum of One Dollar and fifty cents per cord for 16 cords of said wood made from green valuable timber which was being preserved for the benefit of the four lakes.

That the said John Burns cut said timber and manufactured said cordwood therefrom between the 25th day of January, 1937 and the 10th day of March, 1937; and the last of said work done in connection with the making of said cordwood was completed on or about the 10th day of March, 1937 and thirty days have not elapsed since that time; that the amount of claimants demand for said stumpage is Thirty Two dollars; that no part thereof has been paid, and there is ^{now due} and owing thereon Thirty Two Dollars, after deducting all just credits and offsets, in which amount claimant claims a lien upon all of said cordwood of which the said John Burns is the owner, and as herein described, to secure the payment of the stumpage due therein,
