Now, Therefore, The Santa Fe Pacific Railroad Company has made, constituted and appointed O. P. M. Jamison its true and lawful agent and attorney, for it, and in its name, place and stead, to convey by quit-claim deed all the rights, title, interest and claim which the Santa Fe Pacific Railroad Company has, or may hereafter acquire, in the lands so selected or located by said Santa Fe Pacific Railroad Company, or its duly appointed Attorney in fact, in lieu of the above described tract or tracts of land relinquished as aforesaid, in whole or in part, to the full amount of the land so relinquished, as such selections shall have been actually made at the United States District Land Office and which shall appear described upon the public records in the office of the Commissioner of the General Land Office of the United States at Washington, D. C., as the lieu lands so selected;

Giving And Granting unto the said Attorney full power and authority to do and perform all and every act and thing whatsoever requisite and necessary to be done in the above premises, as fully to all intents and purposes as it might or could do if personally present, hereby ratifying and confirming all that its said attorney shall lawfully do or cause to be done by virtue of these presents.

And the said Santa Fe Pacific Railroad Company to any conveyance executed by said attorney hereby gives notice that said attorney hereunder has authority to convey, in whole or in part, only the lands actually selected in lieu of the premises hereinabove specifically described as such lands shall appear described upon the public records in the office of the Commissioner of the General Land Office of the United States at Washington D. C.; and any substantial variance between the description of the lieu lands so selected, as the same may appear described upon such public records, and the premises conveyed by said attorney as such lieu lands, shall render any conveyance of the latter hereunder void.

In Witness Whereof, The Santa Fe Pacific Railroad Company has caused this instrument to be signed by its President and attested by its Secretary with its seal this 4th day of February, A.D. 1905.
