

Power of Attorney

Know all men by these Presents That I, Adeline B. Whiteside of Portland, Oregon, have made and constituted and appointed and by these presents do make, constitute and appoint my husband, George S. Whiteside, of Portland, Oregon, my true and lawful attorney, for me and in my place and stead, to sell, convey and transfer, mortgage and lease all and any real property which I now have or may hereafter acquire in the State of Washington and any and every interest I may have therein, whether the same be a separate estate or community interest or an estate in the community property of others, and to make, execute, acknowledge and deliver such deeds, mortgages, leases and other instruments in writing as to my said attorney may seem proper, giving and granting unto my said attorney full power and authority to perform all and every act and thing whatsoever requisite and necessary to be done in and about the premises as fully to all intents and purposes as I might or could do if personally present, with full power of substitution and revocation, hereby ratifying and confirming all that my said attorney or his substitute shall lawfully do and cause to be done by virtue thereof.

In Witness Whereof I have hereunto set my hand and seal this 17th day of September 1906.
