

mortgage bonds bore interest at the rate of five percent per annum, payable semiannually, on the first days of June and December in each year and

Whereas, The said Oregon Railway and Navigation Company did on or about the first day of December 1893 make default in the payment of the interest on the said consolidated mortgage bonds which became due on the said first day of December 1893 and did thereafter on or about the first day of June 1894 likewise make default in the payment of the interest on the said consolidated mortgage bonds which became payable on the said first day of June 1894 and

Whereas, after such default in the payment of said interest and after the principal of said consolidated mortgage bonds became due as aforesaid there was on or about the twenty fifth day of June 1894 begun in the Circuit Court of the United States of the District of Oregon, a suit in equity to foreclose the said consolidated mortgage, in which suit the said Farmers' Loan and Trust Company was complainant and the said Oregon Railway and Navigation Company and others were defendants, and

Whereas in said suit a certain decree was on the tenth day of August 1895 entered in said court and on the eighth day of June 1896, a supplemental decree was entered in said court and in and by said decrees it was ordered, adjudged and decreed that there was due for the principal and interest upon the said mortgage bonds issued under such consolidated mortgage and for interest upon unpaid coupons on said bonds up to the date of the said decree, the sum of ($4,016,308.09) fourteen million, sixteen thousand, three hundred and eight and nine hundredths dollars, and that unless said parties defendant, or some of them should on or before the expiration of twenty days from the entry of said decree, pay to the said complainant the following sums namely

First: a sufficient sum of money to pay the costs of