

up to the date of the said decree, the sum of ($14,016,308.09) fourteen million, sixteen thousand, three hundred and eight and nine hundredths dollars, and that unless said parties defendant, or some of them, should on or before the expiration of twenty days from the entry of said decree, pay to the said complainant the said sum together with certain other sums mentioned in said decrees then said mortgaged premises and property, real, personal and mixed, rights and franchises, whatever situated should be sold as an entirety and without an appraisement or right of redemption by Richard B. Knapp, who was by said decree appointed master commissioner for such purpose, at public auction to the highest bidder therefore at twelve o'clock noon on the premises of the Oregon Railway and Navigation Company at the depot of said company at Fairview in Multnomah county in the State of Oregon on a day to be named by such master commissioner, and that before making such sale the master commissioner should publish a notice thereof in the manner required by said decrees, and

Whereas, after the entry of the said decree of August tenth 1895, such proceedings were had in said cause that a compromise, adjustment and settlement were had between S. H. H. Clark, Oliver W. Drink, E. Ellery Anderson, Frederic R. Cordat and John W. Doane the receivers heretofore appointed by the said court in the suit of Oliver Ames, second, against the Union Pacific Railway Company and others and Edwin McNeill, the receiver theretofore duly appointed by the said court in the said suit of the party of the first part hereto against the Oregon Railway and Navigation Company which compromise, adjustment and settlement were thereafter and on the twenty second day of May 1896, duly approved and confirmed by said court by an order duly entered in said cause on said last mentioned date, and whereby it was determined, adjudged and decreed that the said Edwin