

Relinquishment of Individual Claimant.

Under the Act of July 1, 1898 (30 Stat., 597-620)

Know all men by these Presents: That I, James J. O'Heane, of Clarke County, in the State of Washington, the identical person who is now asserting a claim to the following described lands, to wit: South East quarter of Section Three, Twp 2 North Range 5 East W. M. under the law, desiring to take advantage of the provisions in the act of Congress, approved July 1, 1898 (30 Stat., 597-620), authorizing an adjustment by the Land Department of conflicting claims to lands within the limits of the grant to the Northern Pacific Railroad Company, do hereby release, quit-claim, and relinquish unto the United States of America, all my right, title, interest, and claim in and to the lands aforesaid, and I request that this relinquishment be accepted by the Commissioner of the General Land Office in order that, under the provisions of the act of Congress aforesaid, I may select other lands in lieu of those hereby relinquished, and may perfect and obtain title to the lands so selected instead of to the lands hereby relinquished.

I, Anna M. O'Heane, wife of the said James J. O'Heane, for the purposes aforesaid, do hereby join my said husband in releasing, quit-claiming and relinquishing unto the United States of America the lands aforesaid and I do specially waive and relinquish any and all dower, homestead, or other interest in the lands relinquished to which I am now or might hereafter be entitled according to law.

Witness our hands and seals this 22nd day of December A. D. 1904.
