D. C. Whiteford to A. H. Kleinick

Know all men by these Presents That Daniel C. Whiteford of Skamania County Washington, named in the annexed instrument for and in consideration of the sum of One hundred Dollars to me in hand paid by A. H. Kleinick of the same County and State the receipt of which is hereby acknowledged do by these presents, sell, transfer, set over, and assign, one half interest in and to the within instrument to the said A. H. Kleinick to take any legal steps necessary to be taken to protect his interest in and to said property.

The intention of this assignment is to convey to the said A. H. Kleinick a full half interest in and to this lease held for the East half of the North east Quarter and N $\frac{3}{4}$ of S $\frac{3}{4}$ of Section Twenty in Township Two North Range Five East W. M. the same being a timber contract running from the 27th day of May 1903 to the 27th day of May 1906. The said assignee is required in this instrument to conform to all the conditions imposed in said timber sale, or lease as set forth in said instrument hereto attached and make a part of this assignment.

In Testimony whereof I have hereunto set my hand and seal this 27th day of February 1904.
