Be it remembered, and I do certify, that on this 7th day of August in the year one hundred thousand eight hundred and ninety-six in said city and county aforesaid, before me the undersigned Philip S. Dean a Notary Public in and for the City and County of New York in the State of New York, duly appointed, qualified and commissioned as such, personally appeared Charles S. Fairchild and A. M. Hyatt whose names are signed to the foregoing instrument and mortgage deed bearing date the 12th day of August A. D. 1896, as President and Secretary, respectively, of the New York Security and Trust Company, with whom I am personally acquainted and who are personally known to me to be the President and Secretary respectively, of said New York Security and Trust Company and to be the identical individuals whose names are subscribed to and who executed the foregoing instrument and mortgage deed as such President and Secretary respectively, and as and for said Company one of the parties to said instrument and mortgage deed, and the grantee therein named, and they for themselves and on behalf of said New York Security and Trust Company on this day severally duly acknowledged the execution of the foregoing instrument and mortgage deed to be the act of said Company and that they executed, signed sealed and delivered the said instrument and mortgage deed as their free and voluntary act and deed and as the free and voluntary act and deed of said Company for the uses and purposes therein mentioned.

And the said Charles S. Fairchild and A. M. Hyatt being first duly sworn according to law, did each for himself depose and say that the said Charles S. Fairchild resides in the State of New York, and that the said A. M. Hyatt resides in the State of New York; that the said Charles S. Fairchild is President and the said A. M. Hyatt is the Secretary of said New York Security and Trust Company and that their names respectively signed in attestation of the foregoing mortgage deed are in their own proper handwriting respectively; that they know the corporate seal of said Company; that the seal affixed to the foregoing instrument is the corporate seal of said Company;
