Affidavit.

State of Washington

County of Skamania, ss. I, the undersigned being first duly sworn depose and say as follows: I have known one J.W. Britain for many years and especially when he lived on his homestead as described on the patent from the United States, recorded on page 297 in Book A of Patents, records of Skamania Co. Wash. and therefore know that said J.W. Britain is identically the same person as Jacob W. Britain to whom said patent was issued. I also knew that said J.W. Britin was married and afterwards was divorced from his wife, she obtaining said divorce in the superior Court for State of Washington for Pierce County, a copy of the decree of said divorce being now of record on page 128 in Book F of Miscellaneous records of said Skamania County Wash.; and I know that said J.W. Britain as mentioned in said decree of divorce is identically the same persons as Jacob W. Britain to whom the above mentioned patent for homestead was issued. I also say that I am the Co. Auditor for above County and State and as such the custodian of all the records of said County appertaining to the transfer of real estate matters in connection with same and that said J.W. Britain or Jacob W. Britain is the only person and identically the same person to whom the land described in said patent was assessed and that his name is sometimes spelled J.W. Britain and sometimes Jacob W.

Britain on said tax rolls and records of said county.
