

Water Right.

To whom it may concern: Notice is hereby given that W.A.Orser of Chenoweth Skamania County Washington hereby claims and appropriates the water lying and being in the Little White Salmon River in Skamania County Washington to the extent of five hundred (500) cubic feet per second of time. The point of diversion of said water being at a point about eighty rods northerly from the point where said Little White Salmon river crosses the North line of Section one Township three North of Range nine East of Willamette Meridian. The purpose for which said water is claimed and appropriated is for domestic, irrigation and manufacturing purposes and the place where water is intended to be used is in the Chenoweth Valley and Underwood Valley and upon the property of the said W.A.Orser in the said Valley. That the means by which it is intended to ~~##~~ divert said water is by flume ditch or pipe line of sufficient size to carry all of the said water appropriated to the point of use.
