In Circuit Court
Third Judicial Circuit

Doratha Kempf, Plaintiff

- vs -

Iver Kempf, Defendant

Decree.

This cause having come on to be heard this 2nd day of December, 1896, upon application for judgment on default upon the complaint of the plaintiff above named filed herein, and it appearing to the satisfaction of the Court; That the summons in said action was duly served upon the defendant, Iver Kempf, by publication and a copy of said summons and complaint, affidavit and order duly mailed to said defendant as directed in an order of publication of summons made by this Court on the 14th day of August, 1896. That more than thirty days have elapsed since the completion of the service as aforesaid and that no answer or demurrer has been served upon plaintiff or her attorney as directed in said summons, nor has the defendant in any manner appeared therein by counsel or otherwise. That plaintiff is now and has been for more than one year last past a bona fide and actual resident of the State of South Dakota, and was so a resident for more than one year next preceding the commencement of this action.

It further appearing to the satisfaction of this Court, from the evidence offered and received on the part of the plaintiff, that all of the allegations of the complaint herein are true and sustained thereby; That said matters alleged and proved on behalf of said plaintiff are sufficient in law to entitle said plaintiff to the relief demanded in her complaint.

Now Therefore, On Motion of W. H. Van Allen Esq., attorney for plaintiff it is ordered, adjudged and decreed, that this Court, by virtue of the power and authority therein vested, and pursuant to the statute in such cases made and provided, does order adjudge and
