

Now if the sums of money due upon said instrument shall be paid according to agreement therein expressed, this conveyance shall be void, but in case default shall be made in payment of the principal or interest, as above provided, then the said Joseph T. Peters his heirs and legal representatives may sell the premises above described with all and every of the appurtenances, or any part thereof, in the manner prescribed by law, and out of the money arising from such sale, retain said principal and interest, together with the costs and charges of making such sale, and a reasonable sum as attorneys fees, and the surplus, if any there be, paid over to the said John P. Anderson his heirs or assigns, and the said party of the first part, for himself, heirs, executors and administrators, do covenant and agree to pay the party of the second part his executors, administrators or assigns the said sum of money as above mentioned.
