

Kitsap County Washington. Together with tenements, hereditaments and appurtenances thereto belonging or in any way appertaining, to have and to hold the same, with the appurtenances, unto the said E. P. Aik and his heirs and assigns forever. This conveyance is intended as a mortgage, to secure the payment of the sum of three hundred Dollars, and the interest thereon, in accordance with the tenor of a certain promissory note, of which the following is a copy, to-wit:

$300.⁰⁰

Stevenson, Wash. Mar. 18. 1903

In or before one year after date, for value received, I promise to pay to the order of E. P. Aik three hundred Dollars with the interest thereon payable at the rate of 7 per cent per annum from date; and if not so paid, the whole sum of both principal and interest to become immediately due and collectable at the option of the holder of this note. If the interest is not paid when due it shall be compounded with the principal and bear like interest therewith, principal and interest payable in lawful money of the United States. And in case suit is instituted to collect this note, or any portion thereof, I promise to pay such additional sum as the court may adjudge reasonable as attorney's fees, to be taxed as a part of the costs of such suit, for the use of plaintiff's attorney. It is specially agreed and consented to that a deficiency judgment may be taken in a suit upon this note.

Hector Stöck.

Now if the sum of money due upon said promissory note be paid according to the agreements herein expressed, this conveyance shall be void; but in case default be made in the payment of the principal or interest as herein provided, then the said E. P. Aik or his legal representation may sell the above described premises, with all and every of the appurtenances or any part thereof, in the manner provided by law, and out of the money arising from such sale retain the said principal and interest, together with the costs and charges of making such sale and the surplus, if any there be, pay over to the said Hector Stöck his administrator or heirs and assigns. In case of foreclosure of this mortgage a deficiency judgment may be taken at the option of the holder thereof. In witness whereof I have set my hand and seal this 18th day of March, A. D. 1903.
