Now if the sum of money due upon said promissory note be paid according to the agreements herein expressed, this conveyance shall be void, but in case default be made in the payment of the principal or interest as therein provided, then the said E. G. Crawford or his legal representative may sell the premises above described, with all and every of the appurtenances or any part thereof, in the manner provided by law, and out of the money arising from such sale retain the said principal and interest, together with the costs and charges of making such sale, and the surplus, if any there be, may be over to the said A. H. Kleinich, D. C. Whiteford and Mary Whiteford, their heirs and assigns.

In Witness Whereof, we hereunto set our hands and seals this 1st day of September A. D. 1904
