

of a certain promissory note of which the following is a copy, to-wit:

$250.00

Stevens, Wash. Oct 5. 1905.

On or before Oct. 5. 1906 for value received I promise to pay to Karl Lundstrom or order, the sum of two hundred and fifty dollars, with interest at the rate of eight per cent. per annum. If the interest is not paid when due it shall be compounded with the principal and bear like interest, principal and interest payable in United States gold coin, and in case suit is instituted to collect this note, or any portion thereof I promise to pay such additional sum as the court may adjudge reasonable as attorney's fees, to be taxed as part of such suit, for the use of plaintiff's attorney.

Jeff Nix.

Now if the sum of money due upon said promissory note be paid according to the agreements herein expressed this conveyance shall be void, but in case default be made in the principal or interest as therein expressed then the said Karl Lundstrom or his legal representative may sell the premises above described with all and every of the appurtenances, or any part thereof, in the manner provided by law, and out of the money arising from such sale, retain the said principal and interest, together with the costs and charges of making such sale, and the overplus, if any there be, going over to the said Jeff Nix, his heirs and assigns.

Witness our hands and seals this 5. day of October 1905.
