A 900.00

Portland, Oregon, February 16th 1906

For value received I, promise to pay to J. H. Van Orden or order, at Portland, Oregon, the sum of Nine hundred and no/100 Dollars, in Gold & Coin of the United States of America with interest thereon, like Gold Coin, at the rate of seven per cent per annum from date until paid, payable in like Gold coin in several installments of not less than $300.00 a day one payment, together with the full amount of interest due on the note at time of payment of each installment. The first payment to be made on the first day of January 1907, and a like payment on the first day of each January thereafter, until the whole sum, principal and interest has been paid; if any of said installments are not paid the whole of said principal sum and interest to become immediately due and collectible. And in case suit or action be instituted to collect this note or any portion thereof, I promise to pay such additional sum as the court may adjudge reasonable as attorney's fees in said suit or action.

J. C. Train

Clara L. Train.

Now if the sum of money due upon said instrument shall be paid according to agreement thereon expressed, this conveyance shall be void, but in case default be made in the payment of the principal or interest, as above provided, then the said J. H. Van Orden and his legal representatives may sell the premises above described, with all and every of the appurtenances, or may any part thereof, in the manner described by law, and out of the money arising from such sale, retain the said principal and interest, together with the costs and charges of making such sale, and a reasonable sum as attorney's fees,

I hereby record the following mortgage, the sum being four hundred and sixteen dollars, and is hereby acknowledged.
