

This conveyance is intended as a mortgage to secure the payment of the sum of three hundred dollars and the interest thereon, in accordance with the tenor of a certain promissory note of which the following is a copy, to-wit:

$300.00

Layton, Wash. March 12, 1906.

On or before five years from date for value received I promise to pay to John G. Fisher or order the sum of Three hundred Dollars, with interest at the rate of seven per cent per annum. If the interest is not paid when due it shall be compounded with the principal and bear like interest, principal and interest payable in United States Gold coin, and in case suit is instituted to collect this note, or any portion thereof I promise to pay such additional sum as the court may adjudge reasonable as attorneys fees to be taxed as part of such suit, for the use of plaintiff's attorney

John F. Schlueter.

Now if the sum of money due upon said promissory note be paid, according to the agreements herein expressed this conveyance shall be void, but in case default be made in the payment of interest as therein provided than the said John G. Fisher or his legal representatives may sell the premises above described, with all and every of the appurtenances, or any part thereof, in the manner provided by law, and out of the money arising from such sale, retain the principal and interest, together with the costs and charges of making such sale, and the surplus, if any there be, pay over to the said John F. Schlueter, heirs and assigns.

Witness my hand This 12. Day of March 1906.
