

On or before Oct 1, 1909 for value received, I promise to pay to Sami Samson or order, the sum of one Thousand Five Hundred dollars, with interest at the rate of eight per cent per annum. If the interest is not paid when due it shall be compounded with the principal, and bear like interest, principal and interest payable in United States gold coin, and in case suit is instituted to collect this note, or any portion thereof I promise to pay such additional sum as the court may adjudge reasonable as attorney's fees, to be taxed as part of such suit, for the use of plaintiffs attorney,

John F. Sweeney,

Now if the sum of money due upon said promissory note be paid according to the agreements herein expressed this conveyance shall be void, but in case default be made in the principal or interest as therein provided then the said Sami Samson or his legal representatives may sell the premises above described, with all and every of the appurtenances, or any part thereof, in the manner provided by law, and out of the money arising from such sale, retain the said principal and interest, together with the costs and charges of making such sale, and the overplus if any there be, pay over to the said John F. Sweeney his heirs and assigns.
