

Rasdale & Boyd to F. Durcher

This Indenture Witnesses that Charles S. Rasdale, and J. M. Boyd and Lida S. Boyd his wife, in consideration of eight hundred Dollars to us paid in hand, the receipt whereof we hereby acknowledge, have bargained, sold and conveyed, and by these presents do bargain, sell and convey unto Fred Durcher the following described premises to-wit: Beginning at a point 15 feet south and thirty feet west of the Northwest corner corner of the Northwest quarter of the Northwest quarter of Section Twenty-nine, Township Three N. P. & S. W. 1/4, running thence west 100 feet, thence south 50 feet, thence east 100 feet, thence North 50 feet to point of beginning containing one lot 100 by 50 feet, in Skamania County, State of Washington, together with the tenement, land, tenements and appurtenances thereto belonging or in anywise appertaining. To have and to hold the same with the appurtenances unto the said Fred Durcher, his heirs and assigns forever. This conveyance is intended as a mortgage to secure the payment of a certain promissory note for eight hundred Dollars and the interest thereon, of which the following is a copy hereto to-wit:

$800.00

Terrace, Wash. Nov. 26th 1906

In or before one year after date for value received we promise to pay to Fred Durcher or order, the sum of eight hundred Dollars, with interest thereon at the rate of 10 per cent per annum. If the interest is not paid when due it shall be compounded with the principal and bear like interest principal and interest payable in United States Gold coin, and in case suit is instituted to collect this note or any portion thereof we promise to pay such additional sum as the court may adjudge reasonable as attorneys fees to be taxed as part of such suit, for the use of plaintiffs attorney.

Charles S. Rasdale

J. M. Boyd.

Now if the sum of money due upon said promissory note be paid according to the agreements expressed herein this conveyance shall be void, but if we default be made in the payment of the principal or interest as herein provided, then the said Fred Durcher or his legal representative may sell the premises above described with all and every of the appurtenances or any part thereof, in the manner provided by law, and out of the money realized from such sale, retain the said principal and interest together with the costs and charges of making such sale, and the overplus, if any there be, pay over to the said Rasdale & Boyd, their heirs and assigns.

Witness our hands and seals this 7th day of December 1906.
