

And in case suit or action is instituted to collect this note, or any portion thereof, I promise to pay such additional sum as the court may adjudge reasonable as attorney's fees in such action or suit.

(Signed). Lewis F. Juan

May Juan

And said mortgagors hereby covenant that they are the owners of said premises in fee simple that they are free from all encumbrances. Now the payment of said note, interest, taxes and insurance premiums as herein provided, shall render this conveyance void; but in case default is made in the payment of the interest in said note expressed when the same shall become due, or in default of the performance of any of the covenants or conditions as herein expressed on the part of the mortgagor, then the whole of the principal sum and the interest accrued at the time default is made or declared, and all taxes upon said premises which the holder of said note shall have paid, or become liable to pay, shall, at the option of the holder of said note, become due and payable, and this mortgage may be foreclosed at any time thereafter. Now it is agreed by said mortgagor that if the mortgage be compelled to foreclose this mortgage by reason of any breach of the agreements herein contained, the mortgagee shall be entitled to a reasonable attorney's fee in said suit or action, and the mortgagors agree to pay said sums of money hereby secured, and agrees that a deficiency judgment may be had against said mortgagors in a suit or action to foreclose this mortgage by the holder of the aforesaid note, or he may waive his security and recover directly upon said note.
