

George McClure to Clarence Myers.

This Indenture, made the 30th day of October in the year of our Lord One Thousand Nine Hundred and One (1901). Between George McClure of Lewis County, State of Washington and Clarence Myers of the City of Chehalis, Lewis County, Washington party of the second part, Witnesseth, That the said party of the first part, for and in consideration of the sum of one hundred (100) Dollars, lawful money of the United States of America, to him in hand paid, the receipt whereof is hereby acknowledged, has granted, bargained, sold, remised, released, conveyed and quit-claimed, and by these presents, do grant, bargain, sell, remise, release, convey and quit-claim unto the said party of the second part and to his heirs and assigns forever, an undivided one-tenth interest, in and to that certain portion, claim and mining right, title and property on that certain ledge, vein, lode or deposits of quartz and other rock in place, containing precious metals of gold, silver, and other metals, and situated in the St. Helens Mining District, County of Okanogan and State of Washington, and described as follows, to-wit: known as "The Chief" commencing at the South east end of the "Puffer mining claim" in said mining district running thence in a Southeasterly direction fifteen hundred (1500) feet, and being 600 feet in width, the same being fully described in the location notice of "The Chief" mine filed for record in the office of the County Auditor of Okanogan County Washington. September 1901.

Together with an undivided one-tenth interest in all the dips, spurs and angles, and also all the metals, ores, gold, silver and metal bearing quartz, rock and earth therein; and all the rights, privileges and franchises thereto incident, appendant and appurtenant, or therewith usually had and enjoyed; and also one-tenth interest in all the estate, right, title, interest, possession, claim and demand whatsoever, of the said party of the first part, of, in or to the premises, and every part and parcel thereof.

To have and to hold all and singular the said premises, together with the appurtenances and priv-