Signed Charles R. Knutson.

Now if the sum of money due upon said instrument shall be paid according to agreement therein expressed, this conveyance shall be void; but in case default shall be made in the payment of the principal or interest, as above provided, then the said P. A. Cox and his legal representatives may sell the premises above described, with all and every of the appurtenances, or any part thereof, in the manner prescribed by law, and out of the money arising from such sale, retain the said principal and interest, together with the costs and charges of making such sale, and a reasonable sum as attorney's fees, and the overplus, if any there be, paid over to said party of the first part, his heirs or assigns, and the said party of the first part, for his heirs and assigns, executors, and administrators, does covenant and agree to pay the said party of the second part his executors, administrators or assigns all the said sum of money as above mentioned.
