

Notary Public in and for said County and State the within named S. E. Gray, personally known to me to be the person described in and who executed the foregoing instrument and acknowledged that he executed the same.

In Witness Whereof I have hereunto set my hand and Notarial Seal this the day and year last above written.

Cyrusville G. Ames.

Notary Public for Washington.

Filed for record by E. A. Sessions, December 21, 1901, at 9 a.m.

J. M. Hale

C. Auditor

Whereas C. D. Bowles, of Vancouver, Washington, was, on the day of 1901, appointed by the Superior Court of the State of Washington, for Clarke County, administrator with the will annexed of the estate of E. L. Canby, deceased, and ever since has been and now is such administrator;

Whereas upon petition therefore duly and regularly filed in and presented to said court for the sale of the property described below at public auction, an order of sale was duly and regularly made and entered in said court for the sale at public auction of said property; and

Whereas notice of said sale was given for over two weeks, which notice was given by posting notices thereof in ten public places in said county, stating the time and place of said sale; and

Whereas at the time and place appointed for said sale the property hereinafter described was sold to John D. Mileox of Portland, Oregon, he being the highest and best bidder therefor and the consideration hereinafter named being the highest and best bid therefor.

Now, therefore, these presents witness that in consideration of the premises and of the sum of thirty dollars to me in hand paid, the receipt of which is hereby acknowledged, I have sold, assigned, set over and transferred, and do hereby sell, assign, set over and transfer, unto said John D. Mileox all the right title interest and estate belonging to said E. L. Canby at the time of his death in and to that certain lode mining claim, located as the Blue Jacket, lying and being
