

upon this note

Edward N. Lovegren.

Now if the sum of money due upon said promissory note be paid according to the agreement there expressed, this conveyance shall be void, but in case default be made in the payment of the principal or interest as therein provided, then the said Robert L. Brown or his legal representatives may sell the premises above described with all and every of the appurtenances, or may forth thereof in the manner provided by law, and out of the money arising from such sale retain the said principal and interest, together with the costs and charges of making such sale and the expenses if any then be paid over to the said Edward N. Lovegren, his heirs and executors. In case of foreclosure of this mortgage a deficiency judgment may be taken at the option of the holder thereof.
