And the following proceeding was had on Monday the 28th day of November A. D. 1887, the same being the 12th judicial day of said term, to-wit:

Francis Easterbrook) vs)
Albert Easterbrook)

Now on this day this cause coming on to be heard on the testimony taken and reported by the referee, Thomas A. Hudson, heretofore appointed, and the plaintiff appearing by her attorneys Gates & Bradshaw, and W. R. Ellis District Attorney appearing on the part of the State and the default of Defendant having heretofore been entered, the Court finds from the evidence reported that the allegations of the complaint herein are true: that plaintiff is and has been a resident of the State of Oregon one whole year next before the commencement of this suit. That plaintiff and defendant were lawfully married to each other in Skamania County, Washington Territory on the 25th day of December 1876; That on or about the month of July 1885, defendant ordered and drove the plaintiff from her house, and would not permit plaintiff to return to her home and live with him, and abused and called plaintiff vile names and charged her with being unchaste and threatened to kill plaintiff; That defendant has wholly failed and neglected to provide anything for the support and maintenance of plaintiff for eighteen months last past.

It is therefore adjudged and decreed that the marriage contract now existing between plaintiff and defendant be and the same is hereby dissolved, annulled and held for naught, and that plaintiff recover her costs.

J. H. Bird

Circuit Judge.
