Now if the sums of money due upon said promissory note be paid according to the agreements therein expressed, this conveyance shall be void; but in case default be made in the payment of the principal or interest as therein provided, then the said Rudolph Glur or his legal representative may sell the premises above described, with all and every of the appurtenances or any part thereof, in the manner provided by law, and out of the money arising from such sale retain the said principal and interest, together with the costs and charges of making such sale and the surplus, if any there be, pay over to the said Rose Shelley and Roswell Shelley their heirs and assigns. In case of foreclosure of this mortgage a deficiency judgment may be taken at the option of the holder thereof.

In witness whereof we hereunto set our hands and seals this 20th day of Febry, A.D. 1908.
