

rate of Ten per cent. per annum from date until paid, according to the terms and conditions of a certain promissory note, bearing date April 10th, 1908, made by Harriet A. Turner payable on or before one year after date to the order of Bank of Stevenson and these presents shall be void if such payment be made according to the terms and conditions thereof. But in case default be made in the payment of the principal or interest of said promissory note or any part thereof, when the same shall become due and payable, according to the terms and conditions thereof, then the said party of the second part, its successors or assigns may immediately thereafter, in the manner provided by law, foreclose this mortgage for the whole amount due upon said principal and interest, with all the other sums hereby secured. In any suit or other proceeding which may be had for the recovery of the amount due, on either said note or this mortgage, said party of the second part, its successors or assigns shall have the right to have included in the judgment which may be recovered, the sum of $35 as attorney's fees, to be taxed as part of the costs in such suit, as well as all payments which said party of the second part, its successors and assigns may be obliged to make for its or their security by insurance or on account of any taxes, charges, incumbrances or assessments whatsoever on the said premises or any part thereof. In case of the foreclosure of this mortgage, the party of the second part its successors or assigns shall be entitled to have entered in such foreclosure suit a judgment for any deficiency remaining due upon account of the indebtedness secured hereby, including taxes, insurance or other lawful assessments after applying the proceeds of the sale of the premises above described to the payment thereof, and to the costs of such foreclosure suit.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the said party of the first part has hereunto set her hand and seal the day and year first above written.
