Stevenson, Wash. April 16th 1908

One year after date for value received, we promise to pay to the order of Bank of Stevenson.
(a corporation) Five Hundred and no/100 Dollars with interest thereon payable semi-annually at the rate of 12 per cent per annum from date; and of not so paid, the whole sum of both principal and interest to become immediately due and collectable at the option of the holder of this note. If the interest is not paid when due it shall be compounded with the principal and bear like interest therewith, principal and interest payable in lawful money of the United States. And in case suit is instituted to collect this note or any portion thereof, we promise to pay such additional sum as the Court may adjudge reasonable as attorneys fees, to be taxed as part of the costs of such suit, for the use of plaintiffs attorney. It is specially agreed and consented to that a deficiency judgment may be taken in a suit upon this note.

I.I. Foster
Flora A. Foster.

Now if the sums of money due upon said promissory note be paid according to the agreements therein expressed, this conveyance shall be void; but in case default be made in the payment of the principal or interest as therein provided, then the said Bank of Stevenson or its legal representative may sell the premises above described with all and every of the appurtenances or any part thereof, in the manner provided by law, and out of the money arising from such sale retain the said principal and interest, together with the costs and charges of making such sale, including attorneys fee therein, and the surplus, if any there be, pay over to the said I.I. Foster and Flora A. Foster, their heirs and assigns. In case of foreclosure of this mortgage a deficiency judgment may be taken at the option of the holder thereof.
