

appeared P. L. McFarlane and Esther McFarlane, his wife, who are personally known to me to be the same persons whose names are subscribed to the within deed of conveyance as parties thereto, and each acknowledged to me that they signed sealed and delivered the said Deed of conveyance as their free and voluntary act and deed for the uses and purposes therein set forth. And I do hereby certify that the said Esther McFarlane on a private examination by me made separate and apart from her husband did acknowledge to me that she did voluntarily of her own free will, sign, seal and deliver the said deed of conveyance as her free voluntary act and deed, and without any fear, coercion or compulsion from any one.

In Witness Whereof I have hereunto set my hand and affixed my official seal the day and year last above written.

W. Byron Daniels,

(Commissioner's Seal)

Commissioner for Oregon residing and acting in the State of Washington.

That the defendants herein and their heirs and assigns be and they are hereby forever estopped, enjoined, and restrained from claiming any benefit arising from or out of said deed or from claiming that said erroneous deed was ever other, than said deed as herein reformed, and the plaintiff have and is hereby given judgment for his costs herein.
