

1500 linear feet to a point, and taking 300 linear feet on the South side and 300 linear feet on the North side from the center of the Lode, joining the Lome Lode. Also, Lippies Lode, Discovery Claim, No. Three N.W. described as follows: Beginning at Discovery No. Three about 250 feet Southeastly from the N.W. end point of Discovery Claim No. Two of said Lode, and running thence N.W. 1500 linear feet to a point and taking 300 linear feet on each side of the center of the lode and joining the Lome Lode. Including two ore streaks Westerly of the Main Lode, to be known as the Phoenix and Phoenix ore streaks. Also, Lome Lode, Discovery Claim No. One, N.W. described as follows: Beginning in the center of a branch of Canyon Creek, a tributary of Spirit Lake, about 600 feet below Lome Pass on the divide between the head of Coldwater Valley and the Spirit Lake country, known as Game Park, and running thence Northwestly 1500 linear feet, and taking 300 linear feet on each side from the center of said Lode. Also, Lome Lode, Discovery Claim, No. Two S.E. described as follows: Beginning in the center of a branch of Canyon Creek, a tributary of Spirit Lake, about 600 feet below Lome Pass on the divide between the head of Coldwater Valley and the Spirit Lake country known as Game Park, and running thence Southeastly 1500 linear feet, and taking 300 linear feet on each side from the center of said Lode. Also Recorder Lode, Discovery Claim No. One N.W. described as follows: Beginning at the discovery about 350 feet above the discovery of the Lome Lode, on the same creek and running thence N.W. 1500 linear feet including 300 linear feet on each side of the lode from the center thereof. Also, Recorder Lode, Discovery Claim, No. Two S.E. described as follows: Beginning at the discovery about 350 feet above the discovery of the Lome Lode, on the same creek and running thence S.E. 1500 linear feet including 300 linear feet on each side of the lode from the center thereof. Also, Mayflower Lode, Discovery Claim, No. One S.E. described as follows: Beginning at the discovery in the center of a branch of Canyon Creek, about 750 ft. Westerly of the Northern Lights claim, and running thence 1500 linear feet Southeastly to a point, and taking 300 linear feet on each side from the center of lode including two ore streaks about 25 and 50 ft. respectively Northeastly from this lode. Also, Mayflower Lode, Discovery Claim No. Two, N.W. described as follows: Beginning at the discovery in center of a branch of Canyon Creek, about 750 feet Westerly of the Northern Lights claim, and running thence Northwestly 1500 linear feet to a point, and taking 300 linear feet on each side from center of lode. Including two ore streaks about 25 and 50 feet respectively Northeastly from this lode. Also, Mayflower Lode, Discovery Claim, No. Three N.W. described as follows: Beginning at the Northwest end point of Discovery Claim No. Two N.W. on the Mayflower lode and running thence Northwestly 1500 linear feet to a point, and taking 300 linear feet on each side from the center of the Lode. Including two ore streaks about 25 and 50 feet respectively Northeastly from this Lode. Also, Camp Lode, Discovery Claim, No. One S.E. described as follows: Beginning in the center of the Creek, a branch of Canyon Creek, about 300 feet Northwestly from the Loghouse and running thence Southeastly 1500 linear feet to a point, and taking 300 linear feet on each side of the center of the Lode. Also, Camp Lode, Discovery Claim,