

United States to Santa Fe Pacific Railroad Co.

Selection No. 8828.

The United States of America To all to whom these presents shall come, Greeting:

Whereas, The Santa Fe Pacific Railroad Company being the owner of a tract of land described as follows: the North West quarter of Section seventeen in Township twenty-two North of Range four East of Siles and Salt River meridian in Arizona, containing one hundred and sixty acres, situated and included within the limits of a public forest reservation, known and officially designated as the San Francisco Mountain Forest Reserve in Arizona, has, under the provisions of the act approved June 4, 1897, entitled "An act making appropriations for sundry civil expenses of the Government for the fiscal year ending June thirtieth, eighteen hundred and ninety-eight, and for other purposes," recovered and relinquished the said tract to the United States and has, under the provisions of said act selected in lieu thereof the following described tract of land now open to settlement, to wit: the East half of the South East quarter of Section nine and the North half of the North West quarter of Section fifteen in Township two North of Range six East of Willamette Meridian in Washington, containing one hundred and sixty acres.

Now Know Ye, That the United States of America, In consideration of the premises, and in conformity with the aforesaid act, have given and granted, and by these presents do give and grant unto the said Santa Fe Pacific Railroad Company and to its successors the land last above described: To have and to hold the same, together with all the rights, privileges, immunities and appurtenances of whatsoever nature thereunto belonging, unto the said Santa Fe Pacific Railroad Company and to its successors and assigns forever. And there are reserved, from the lands hereby granted, a right of way thereon for ditches or canals constructed by the authority of the United States.

In Testimony Whereof, I, Theodore Roosevelt, President of the United States of America, have caused these letters to be made patent, and the seal of the General Land Office to be hereunto affixed. Given under my hand, at the City of Washington, the fourteenth day of November, in the year of our Lord one thousand nine hundred and four, and of the Independence of the United States the one hundred and twenty ninth.

By the President: T. Roosevelt
