

of the breach of any other covenant or agreement, express or implied, in this indenture, in respect to any of the lands so relinquished, and which breach shall prevent the further selection and approval of other lieu lands in place of any of the lands so relinquished as aforesaid, then the measure of damages to be recovered on account thereof shall be such a proportion and no more, of the entire consideration paid as aforesaid by said second party, as the number of acres of relinquished lands to which the title thereto shall prove insufficient to warrant the selection of lieu lands as aforesaid, shall bear to the entire number of acres relinquished to the United States as aforesaid; but in no event shall the amount of damages which said second party shall be entitled to recover exceed the consideration herein expressed, to-wit: Six hundred and forty Dollars, with interest thereon at the rate of five per cent. per annum from date of payment. It is further agreed by the parties hereto, that if any of the selections of lieu lands made as aforesaid, under the direction of said second party and described and conveyed herein, shall not be approved by the proper officers of the United States for patent for any reason whatsoever, then the said second party shall within a reasonable time after such failure of approval, designate other selections in lieu thereof, and said first party shall thereupon make such selections, and after approval by the United States, convey all its right, title and interest in the same to said second party, his heirs and assigns, subject to the covenants therein contained. In Witness Whereof, the said Santa Fe Pacific Railroad Company, party of the first part, has caused this deed to be signed by its President and attested by its Assistant Secretary and its seal to be duly affixed the day and year first above written.
