Kuffler to Kuffler

This Indenture made this 30th day of April 1910 by and between Caspar Kuffler and Barbara Kuffler husband and wife, parties of the first part and Olive C.Kuffler party of the second part,

Witnesseth: That whereas the party of the second part has loaned to the party of the first part the full sum of Five hundred dollars which sum the said parties of the first part agree to repay on or before one year after this date and to pay interest thereon annually at the rate of six per cent per annum from this date until paid; and also to pay all taxes and assessments which may be assessed or levied to or against the party of the second part or assigns on account of such loan. All according to the terms of that certain promissory note given therefor of which the following is a copy:

$500.00

Portland, Oregon April 30th 1910

On or before one year after date without grace I promise to pay to the order of Olive C.Kuffler at the office of the Habernia Savings Bank at Portland Oregon, the sum of five hundred dollars in Gold coin of the United States of America with interest thereon in like gold coin at the rate of six per cent per annum from date until paid for value received. Interest payable annually and in case suit or action is instituted to collect this note or any portion thereof I promise to pay such additional sum as the court may adjudge reasonable as attorneys fees in said suit or action.

signed: Caspar Kuffler

Now therefore in consideration of said loan and for the purpose of securing the payment of the said several sums of money named in said note and the faithful performance of all the covenants herein contained, the parties of the first part do hereby grant, bargain sell and convey unto the said party of the second part, her heirs and assigns forever all of that certain real estate situate in Skamania County state of Washington and described as follows to-wit:
