

real estate and premises so sought to be appropriated are required and necessary for the prosecution of such enterprise and the parties in open court having a trial on the question of the amount of damages to be paid for the appropriation thereof and consulting and agreeing that the compensation to be paid for the taking and injuriously affecting of said land, real estate and premises involved in this proceeding be fixed at the sum of One hundred Fifty Dollars to be paid by the petitioner in Court for Plaintiff and that a decree for appropriation be entered. And it further appears that said sum of One Hundred Fifty Dollars has been paid to said claimant in accordance with said stipulation and that all the steps required by law to secure the appropriation of the interest of the claimant in the property hereinbefore described have been duly taken and followed by the petitioner herein,

It is therefore ordered, adjudged and deemed that the interest of said claimant in the land, real estate and premises mentioned and hereinafter more particularly described be and the same is hereby appropriated for the purpose of the right of way of the railroad of said petitioners and the legal title of said premises and the interest of the claimant therein be and the same is hereby vested in said Portland and Seattle Railway Company, its successors and assigns.

The following is a more particularly description of said center line of railroad across said lot : commencing at a point on the west boundary of said lot which is 1186 feet south of the nearer corner on the west line of said lot, thence on a curve to the right having a radius of 1910 feet a distance of 1228.5 feet, thence on a spiral curve to the right 225 feet thence north  $84^{\circ} 12'$  east 49.5 feet, thence on a spiral curve to the left a distance of ten feet to the east line of said lot.
