Now, if the sums of money due upon said instrument shall be paid according to the agreement therein expressed, this conveyance shall be void, but in case default is made in the payment of the principal or interest as above provided, then the said L.P. Hosford and Roscoe R. Morrill and their legal representatives may sell the premises above described with all and every of the appurtenances or any part thereof in the manner provided by law and out of the money arising from such sale, retain the said principal and interest together with the costs and charges of making such sale and a reasonable sum as attorneys fee and the over plus if any there be, paid over to the said Fred N. Henion and Myrta M. Henion, their heirs and assigns, and the said parties of the first part do covenant and agree with the said party of the second part their heirs and assigns to pay the said sum of money above mentioned.
