Portland and Seattle Railway Company, a corporation, Petitioner

Order of Condemnation

and

Fred C. Yettick and Hattie Yettick, his wife, Claimants.

Decree of Appropriation

This cause came on regularly for hearing before the Court on the 27th day of November 1906 at the Hour of One o'clock P.M. pursuant to the order of this Court continuing the hearing of this cause from the 14th day of November 1906, the petitioner appearing by Geo. T. Reid, its attorney, but the claimants Fred C. Yettick and Hattie Yettick did not appear, either in person or by attorney. And it appearing to the court by satisfactory proof that all of the parties interested in the land, real estate and premises described in the petition herein had been duly and personally served with the notice of this proceeding. And the Court being further satisfied by competent proof that the contemplated use for which the land, real estate and premises sought to be appropriated by this proceeding is really a public use and that the public interest requires the prosecution of such enterprise and that the land, real estate and premises so sought to be appropriated is required and necessary for the purposes of such enterprise. And a jury being duly empaneled and sworn to try the cause, the trial proceeded before the Court and jury and the petitioner having introduced its testimony and the court
