

to itself, its successors and assigns, two crossings over said right of way at such points as the grantor herein, its successors or assigns, shall select at any time hereafter. Said crossings to be twenty five feet in width and are hereby reserved to the grantor, its successors and assigns forever. Said crossings to be constructed, operated and maintained across said right of way to the road bed, at the expense of the grantor, its successors or assigns, but across the road bed and track, each shall be first constructed by and at the expense of the grantee; thereafter each shall be maintained at the expense of the grantor, its successors or assigns. Said right of way to be so constructed as to permit free travel for wagons and like vehicles, foot passengers and like purposes. In case the said crossings, or either, or both thereof when selected shall be at a point on said right of way where it includes the shore line of the Columbia River, then a strip of water frontage one hundred feet in width, being fifty feet on each side of the center line of said crossings, is hereby reserved to the grantor, its successors and assigns, along the said shore for wharfage and landing purposes. TO HAVE AND TO HOLD the above granted premises with reservations unto the said Portland and Seattle Railway Company, its successors and assigns forever.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the said grantor has caused these presents to be executed, and its corporate seal hereunto affixed, pursuant to authority from its Board of Directors heretofore duly adopted and passed. Dated this 20th. day of December, 1905.
