

Brooks to Corson ✓

This Indenture Witnesseth that Jesse Brooks and G.M.Brooks husband and wife, for and in consideration of the sum of two hundred (\$200.00) dollars to them in hand paid the receipt whereof is hereby acknowledged have bargained and sold and by these presents do bargain sell and convey unto George E. Corson all the following described premises: All of the West one half (W $\frac{1}{2}$) of the Southwest quarter of the Southeast quarter of section five (5) in Township two (2) North of Range seven (7) East of Willamette Meridian, in the County of Skamania State of Washington. This mortgage is given as a part of the purchase price of the above described lands. Together with the tenements hereditaments and appurtenances thereunto belonging or in anywise appertaining; to have and to hold the same with the appurtenances unto the said George E. Corson his heirs and assigns forever/ This conveyance is intended as a mortgage to secure the payment of the sum of two Hundred (\$200.00) dollars in accordance with the tenor of a certain instrument of writing of which the following is substantial a copy to-wit:

Portland, Oregon September 16th 1911

Two years after date without grace I promise to pay to the order of George Corson two hundred dollars in gold coin of the United States with interest thereon at rate of 7% per annum from date until paid and if not so paid, for value received, interest to be paid semi-annually and if not so paid the whole sum of both principal and interest to become immediately due and collectible at the option of the holder of this note. And in case suit is instituted to collect this note or any portion thereof I promise and agree to pay in addition to the costs and charges allowed by statutes such additional sum as the court may adjudge reasonable as attorneys fee in said, suit or action. This note is secured by a purchase price mortgage.

Jesse Brooks
G.M. Brooks

Now, if the sums of money due upon said instrument shall be paid according to the agreements therein contained, this conveyance shall be void, but in case default shall be made in the payment of the principal or interest as above provided, then the said George E. Corson and his legal representatives may sell the premises above described with all and every of the appurtenances or any part thereof in the manner provided by law and out of the money arising from such sale retain the said principal and interest together with the costs and charges of making such sale and the overplus if any there be, pay over to the said Jesse Brooks and G.M. Brooks their heirs and assigns.
