

of Four hundred fifty and no/100 ($450.00) Dollars, and the interest thereon in accordance with the tenor of a certain promissory note, of which the following is a copy, to-wit:

$450.00

Stevenson, Wash., March 22nd 1912

On or before one year after date, without grace, for value received I promise to pay to Bank of Stevenson, Stevenson, Wash., or order Four hundred fifty and no/100 Dollars at the Bank of Stevenson, Stevenson, Wash. with interest after date at the rate of ten per cent. per annum until paid Interest to be paid semi-annually and if not so paid the whole sum of both principal and interest to become immediately due and collectible at the option of the Holder of this note. Authority is hereby given to collect or dispose of any collateral security that may have been pledged to secure the payment of this note, at any time, and apply proceeds hereon, and surplus, if any, less the expenses, to be returned to the maker hereof. For value received each and every party signing or endorsing this note hereby waives presentment, demand, protest and notice of non-payment thereof, binds himself thereon as a principal, not as a surety, and promises in case suit is instituted to collect the same or any portion thereof, to pay such sum as the court may adjudge reasonable as attorneys fees in such suit or action.
