in consideration of five hundred dollars to me in hand paid the receipt whereof is hereby acknowledged have bargained and sold and by these presents bargain, sell and convey unto E. P. Ash of Stevenson, Washington the following described premises to-wit: Lots nine, ten, thirteen and fourteen of section thirteen Township three North & Range seven and one half East of the Willamette Meridian containing 153.01 acres. Together with tenements hereditaments and appurtenances thereunto belonging or in anywise appertaining, to have and to hold the same with the appurtenances unto the said E. P. Ash and his heirs and assigns forever. This conveyance is intended as a mortgage to secure the payment of the sum of five hundred dollars ($500.00) and interest thereon in accordance with the tenor of a certain promissory note of which the following is a copy to-wit:

$500.00

Stevenson Washington March 13th 1911

On or before one year after date for value received I promise to pay to the order of E. P. Ash five hundred ($500.00) dollars with interest thereon payable at maturity at the rate of 8 per cent per annum from date, and if not so paid, the whole sum of both principal and interest to become immediately due and collectible at the option of the holder of this note. If the interest is not paid when due it shall be compounded with the principal and bear like interest principal and interest payable in lawful money of the United States. And in case suit is instituted to collect this note or any portion thereof I promise to pay such additional sum as the Court may adjudge reasonable as attorneys fees to be taxed as part of the costs of such suit for the use of plaintiff attorney. It is specially agreed and consented to that a deficiency judgment may be taken in a suit upon this note.
