That each party may make such disposition of his or her property as the case may be, by gift or Will during his or her lifetime, as each sees fit; and in the event of the death of one of the parties, the survivor shall have no interest in the property of the estate of the other, either by way of inheritance, succession, family allowance or homestead.
4. That each party, in the event of a separation, shall have no right as against the other by way of claims for support, alimony, attorney fees, costs or division of property.
