

payment thereof, binds himself thereon as a principal, not as a surety, and promises in case suit is instituted to collect the same or any portion thereof, to pay such sum as the court may adjudge reasonable as attorney fees in such suit or action.

P.O. Stevenson, Wn.

H.M. Button

Due January 30th. 1913.

Ida M. Button.

Now if the sums of money due upon said promissory note be paid according to the agreement herein expressed, this conveyance shall be void; but in case default be made in the payment of the principal or interest as therein provided, then the said mortgagee or its legal representative may sell the premises above described, with all and every of the appurtenances or any part thereof, in the manner prescribed by law, and out of the money arising from such sale retain the said principal and interest, together with the costs and charges of making such sale and such other charges including taxes and attorney fee as may be rendered necessary for the protection of this mortgage and the surplus, if any there be, pay over to the said grantors their heirs and assigns. In case of foreclosure of this mortgage a deficiency judgment may be taken at the option of the holder thereof.

In witness whereof we hereunto set our hands and seals this 30th. day of January

A.D.1913.
