

Decree of Settlement and Distribution.

In the Superior Court of the State of Washington for Clarke County.

In the matter of the Estate of Thomas M. Doyle, deceased.

Albert T. Doyle, Executor of the estate of Thomas M. Doyle, deceased, under the last will and testament of said deceased, having on the 16th day of February A.D. 1909 rendered and filed herein a full account and report of his administration of said estate which account was for a final settlement and having with said account filed a petition for the final distribution of the estate; and this said account and petition this day coming on regularly to be heard, proof having been made to the satisfaction of the Court that the clerk had given notice of the settlement of said account and the hearing of said petition in the manner and for the time heretofore ordered and directed by the Court and as is required by law of the state of Washington. And it appearing that said account in all respects is true and correct and that it is supported by proper vouchers, that no money belonging to the said estate came into the hands of said executor; that the sum of sixty seven hundred and seventy four and 21/100 Dollars ($6774.21), the same being the sum necessary to pay all the debts and expenses of administration of said estate, and legacies given and bequeathed to the adopted daughter of said decedent in said last will and testament, as fully set forth in said final account, and that the further sum of one hundred and ninety and 02/100 Dollars ($190.02) necessary to pay for the publication of notice of this said hearing and the inheritance tax upon said estate has been advanced by and paid to the said executor by the residuary legatees and devisees named in said last will and testament and out of which said sum all of the debts, expenses of administration and special bequests of said estate and said last will and testament have been paid; that the sum of sixty nine hundred fourteen and 23/100 Dollars has been expended by said executor as necessary expenses of administration, the vouchers whereof together with a statement of such expenses and disbursements, are now presented and filed, and said statement is now settled and allowed, and the payments are approved by this court; and it appearing that all claims and debts against said decedent, all taxes on said estate, and all debts, expenses and charges of administration, including all special legacies given and bequeathed by said last will and testament, have been fully paid and discharged, and that the said estate is ready for distribution, and in condition to be closed:

It is further ordered, adjudged and decreed, that the said final accounts of the said executor be and the same hereby are settled, allowed and approved and that the residue of said estate hereinafter particularly described, and any other property not now known or discovered which may belong to the said estate or in which the said estate may have an interest, or which may not be set forth herein, be and the same hereby is distributed share and share alike to the residuary legatees and devisees named in the said last will and testament, as follows:

All of said property to be distributed, an undivided one half interest thereof to each, to Hannah Belle Doyle, the widow, and Albert T. Doyle, the nephew of said decedent.

The following is a particular description of said residue of said estate referred to in this decree and of which distribution is now ordered as aforesaid:
