

Together with tenements, hereditaments and appurtenances thereunto belonging or in any wise appertaining, to have and to hold the same, with the appurtenances, unto the said Marion Garwood his heirs and assigns forever.

THIS CONVEYANCE is intended as a mortgage, to secure the payment of the sum of One-thousand and no/100 (1000.00) Dollars, and the interest thereon, in accordance with the tenor of a certain promissory note, of which the following are copies towit:

Note A.

$333.00

Stevenson Wash., 6/2 1913

On or before One year after date, for value received we promise to pay to the order of Marion Garwood Three-hundred-thirty-three and no/100 Dollars with interest thereon payable annually at the rate of 7 per cent per annum from date; and if not so paid, the whole sum of both principle and interest to become immediately due and collectable at the option of the holder of this note. If the interest is not paid when due it shall be compounded with the principal and bear like interest therewith, principal and interest payable in lawful money of the United States. And in case suit is instituted to collect this note, or any portion thereof, we promise to pay such additional sum as the Court may adjudge reasonable as attorneys' fees, to be taxed as a part of the costs of such suit, for the use of plaintiff's attorney. It is specially agreed and consented to that a deficiency judgment may be taken in a suit upon this note.
